Cornhusker Jottings . . .

This is the day Nebraskans welcome an ancient and honored foe, the University of Kansas...

In the matter of long-standing rivalry the Kansas-Nebraska series takes rank over all other opponents in Cornhusker grid history... The series started in 1892 and with exception of two years, 1904 and 1905, the teams have met annually... Today's contest will be the 60th game between the two universities... Although Nebraska holds an edge of 42 games won, 14 lost, plus 3 ties, during recent years the Jayhawkers have been striding upward... Since 1941 the Cornhuskers have won 7 and lost 5...

Partisans of both schools have been friendly enemies for 60 years...

So we say welcome to a fine football team, coaching staff and its loyal followers...

May this series never end!

In the past 25 years—since the Big Seven Conference was formed—Husker football teams coached by D. X. Bible, Glenn Presnell and E. E. Bearg have had perfect records against the Jayhawks... Bible-coached clubs won eight straight from the Kansans from 1929 through 1936... Bearg's 1928 eleven and Presnell's 1942 club also whipped the men from Mt. Oread... Biff Jones had a record of 4 wins, no defeats and 1 tie, and A. J. Lewandowski, Patsy Clark and Bernie Masterson 1-1-0 marks...

Fumbles, present in starkly gruesome numbers this season, have played a big part in the past four games between Nebraska and Kansas... Each team lost the ball a total of 9 times... Victories have been divided over the same period, Bill Glassford's young men winning 2 and losing 2...
